Descendants of Christian Shelly of

Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Pa.

E. HERMAN SHELLEY
2627 Logan Street
Camp Hill, Penna.

March 6, 1955.

I always hated to operate a typewriter, therefore, for me to finally complete three writings of the following data concerning the Shelley Family is indeed an accomplishment. Each of you will receive an original copy, the carbons including the typographical errors, will be presented, with no apologies offered, to the Penna. State Library and to the historical societies of Lancaster and York Counties.

As a hobby, these notes were leisurely gathered as time permitted over a period of twenty years. Many people assisted me. In the earlier years Miss Ferguson of the State Library, Mrs. Claire R. Shirk of Harrisburg and Mrs. John L. Fryburg, Registrar, the Huguenot Society of Pennsylvania were most helpful. During the last few years M. Luther Heisey, genealogist, Lancaster County Historical Society and Charles F. Kauffman, author of The Kauffman-Coffman Lineages, supplied me with a wealth of material. A letter from Mrs. Grafton S. Kennedy of Dayton, Ohio, enclosing data she had collected in 1917 in the family graveyard on Shelley Island was deeply appreciated. The cemetery records of the Lancaster and York County Historical Societies contained much useful material.

Who was the first Shelly to arrive in Pennsylvania? That's a fair question and deserves a fair answer. I DON'T KNOW.

The earliest record I found of a Shelly in Pennsylvania was that of Elizabeth who married John Falkner in the First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, May 21, 1720. In 1733 an Abraham Shelly acquired land in Bucks County. That year a Christian Shelly applied for land in what is now Manheim Township, Lancaster County. In September, 1734, a Jacob Shelley applied for land along the Little Conestoga Creek in Hempfield Township. It has not been determined whether Elizabeth, Abraham, Christian and Jacob were related. It does appear Christian and Jacob were brothers as the will of Jacob dated May 18, 1752, referred to "my brother Christian."

No record of the arrival of these people has been found.

Penna. Archives, 2nd Ser. Vol. 17, p. 245 under date of Sept. 30, 1743, Ship Robert and Alice lists Johannes Shalley, Christian Shalley, Hans Adam Shalley and Joh. Ludwig Shalley.

It is entirely possible that Christian and Jacob may have been the sons or brothers of Adam Shalley. The Orphans Court records of Lancaster Co. (Docket Book 1754-1757, page 115, Sept. 15, 1758) refer to Adam Shally and wife Elizabeth as the administrators of Benedict Breckbill and on page 116, same date, there appears the notation "Jacob Shalley, administrator of the estate of Adam Shalley, deceased." This latter record speaks of the widow of Adam, the eldest son and six other children but lists no names. Lacking better proof, I must assume no relationship existed between Jacob and/or Christian and Adam although it is entirely possible either Jacob or Christian, or both, may have returned to Europe to assist other members of the family to Pennsylvania.

Abraham Shelly of Bucks County was a Mennonite. Jacob of Lancaster County lived among the Mennonites and married into a Mennonite family, as did two of his sons. It therefore seems fair to assume Jacob was a Mennonite. Subsequent findings seem to substantiate this conclusion.

When I was a youngster I knew many Shelleys, cousins of various degree, and had the opportunity of hearing many family traditions. Life being what it is today, you missed all this. With this in mind, these pages were prepared with the hope you will be able to come to a better understanding of your Pennsylvania Dutch ancestors.

The records of the Department of Internal Affairs for Lancaster County (Vol. A. No. 15, page 636----C 185-262) state Christian Shelly applied for 200 A. of land March 7, 1733, and that he received 265 A situate in Manheim Township by Proprietary Patent dated June 4, 1751.

The will of Christian Shelly dated April 22, 1760 provided 40 Pounds for wife Magdalena and that John Gingrey (Gingrich), son-in-law, married to Catharine Shelly, shall receive the real estate, John to pay 400 Pounds, i.e. 50 Pounds to each of the following children: Mary; Ann; Margaret; Elizabeth; Easter, Frena; Susanna and Christian. Jacob, a son, having been provided with a tract of land, was not to participate in the estate. Witnesses to the will were Michael Kauffman and Valentine Grosh. Will was probated March 12, 1767.

Jacob, the son, died sometime between April 22, 1760 and June 6, 1761.

Deed of June 6, 1761, recorded Deed Book FF, page 166 states Christian Shelly and his wife, Magdalena, by their deed of May 15, 1759, did grant to their son Jacob 78 acres, the same being part of the 265 A. granted to Christian by Patent. Jacob Shelly having since died intestate and unmarried.

Charles Cayser and Mary his wife, late Mary Shelly Margaret Haldiman, widow, late the wife of John Haldiman, deceased, formerly Margaret Shelly
Samuel Huber and Esther, his wife, late Esther Shelly John Reisar and Catharine, his wife, late Catherine Shelly and Susanna Shelly

all of the County of Lancaster, granted to Elizabeth Shelly, the 78 A. for 146 Pounds 5 Shillings. This deed was not recorded until Oct. 31, 1786.

1---Christian Shelly,

The date of probate of the will of Christian Shelly is quite confusing. Apparently Christian died prior to June 19, 1761 although the will was not probated until 1767. Deed Book H, p. 109 cites the will of Christian and recites as of June 19, 1761 the land was transferred to John Inggrey who transferred to his elder brother Jacob Gingrey, and that Jacob Gingrey transferred to Elizabeth Shelly, now wife of Peter Weyland, Susanna Shelly, and John Reyser and wife, Catherine Shelly, by deed the same date. (Note ---John Gingrey is apparently dead at this time as his wife now appears to be the spouse of John Reyser.) In turn, by Deed of Dec. 14, 1761, Susanna Shelly and John Reyser and wife Catharine sold to Peter Weyland (he to support the widow of Christian Shelly) for 800 Pounds.

Misc. Book, 1763-1767, page 282 ---- in re Jacob Shelly, deceased,at the instance of John Eppler and Frena, his wife, one of the daughters of Christian Shelly, deceased, and sister of Jacob Shelly, deceased, it is ordered that a Petition do issued to Peter Weyland of Warwick Township to appear at the next Orphans Court to be held at Lancaster, the first Tuesday in June, next, to show cause, if any he hath, why an Inquest should be awarded by the Court to make partition of the lands whereof the said Jacob Shelly died seized in fee, intestate, to and among the Heirs-at-Law of the said Jacob.

Book 1768-1772, page 268. June 9, 1771, Christian Shelly, minor, son of Crhistian Shelly, of Manheim, deceased, above the age of 14, has Michael Kaufman, of Hempfield Township, appointed his guardian. Note--a Michael Kaufman was a witness to the will of Christian Shelly, Sr.

Book Y, vol. 2, p. 35. Will dated Sept. 23, 1804, probated May 22, 1821, Eve Catharine Shelly, of Hempfield Twp. mentions two sons, Michael and John George, and daughter, Barbara. Jacob Getz, who was named as Executor was the husband of Barbara. It is believed Eva Catharine was the widow of Christian, Jr.

Barbara Shelly b. June 25, 1761, of Manheim Township, m. Jacob Getz, Jr. (1758-1824) of Hempfield Township, Sept. 7, 1785, First Reformed Church, Lancaster.

Michael Schelly m. Anna Brubaker, Mar. 20, 1787 Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster.

George (perhaps John George) Schelly m. Margaret Brubacher of Manheim Township, Sept. 4, 1790, First Reformed Church, Lancaster.

Michael and John George Shelly acquired land in York County. Deed Book 2Q, p. 88, May 9, 1794 indicates George Emmert and wife Catherine of Manchester Twp. York County sold land to Michael Schelly of Manheim Township, Lancaster County.

Deed Book 2-P, p. 307, April 19, 1800 recites: Leonard (?) Emmert & wife Catharine, May 19, 1794, sold to Michael Shelly and that Michael Shelly, and wife Anna on June 30, 1798 transferred to George Shelly and that George Shelly and wife Margaret did transfer to Jost Herbaugh certain land in Manchester Township.

No attempt was made to find descendants of these men.

JACOB SHELLY born about 1700 died prior Aug. 20, 1760. married MARY KNEISLEY born about 1700. Their children:

1. Jacob
2. Christian
3. Abraham
4. Michael
5. Mary born about 1734 married Peter Bowman. Nfr.
6. Daniel
7. Peter
8. Anna died without issue prior to Aug. 20, 1760
9. Martin died without issue prior to Aug. 20, 1760

Ref. will of Jacob Shelly among Misc. Records and Deed Book G, pages 203-224, Lanc. Co.

Mary Kneisley was the daughter of Anthony and Magdalena Kneisley. Kneisley, who died in 1733, appeared on tax lists for Conestoga Township in 1724-25. In addition to Mary, Anthony Kneisley was survived by the following:

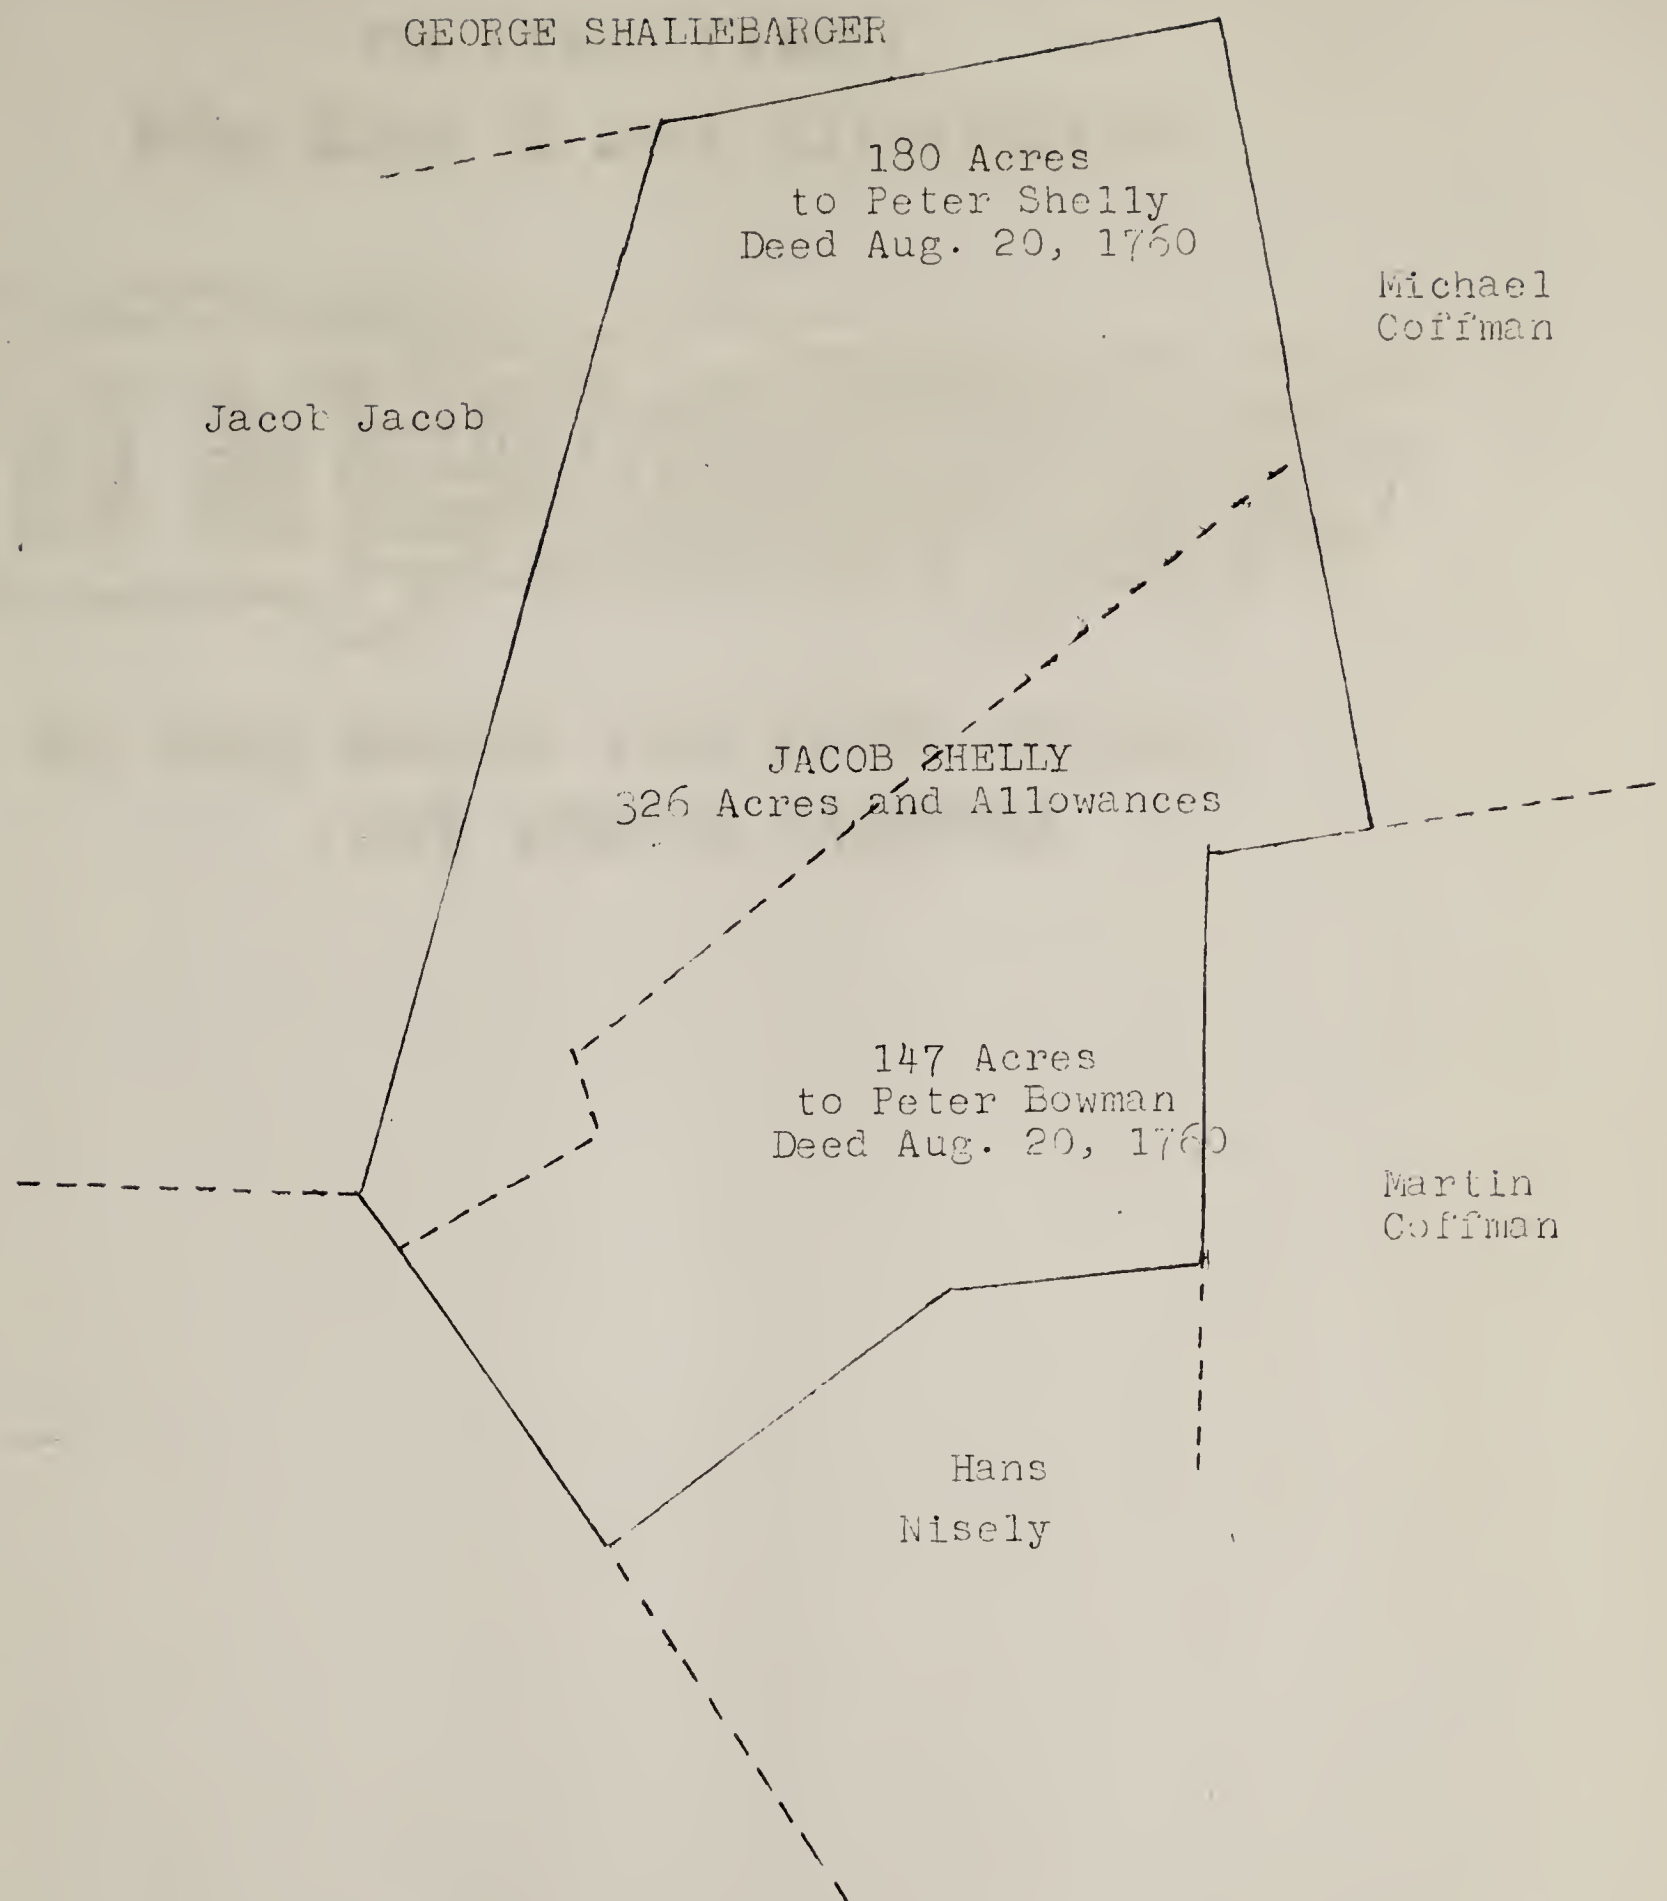

Elizabeth, the wife of Andrew Kauffman
 Barbara, the wife of Michael Miller
 Christiana, the wife of Christian Holdeman
 Anna, the wife of Jacob Jacobs
 Sybilla, the wife of Joseph Galladay
 Hans
 George
 Anthony

Ref.
 Kauffman Family Hist.
 p. 512

The following map shows the land holdings of some of these people. It is thought the lands of Hans Kneisley may have been owned at one time by Anthony Kneisley. Traditionally, Widow Stipkin or Stevens, whose lands are indicated, was the sister of Jacob Shelly. Nothing was found in the public record to support this.

By virtue of a Proprietary Warrant dated Sept. 4, 1734 and Patent of December 29, 1739, Jacob Shelly acquired 327 acres of land "on a branch of the Little Conestgoe Creek in Hempfield Township, County of Lancaster," See Survey Book C 182-165 and Patent Book A 1-3.

Jacob Shelly's will written in German and signed with the mark JS was translated by Abram Myer. In the will he refers to the land holdings of his sons Jacob and Michael in Rapho Township and to those of his sons Christian and Abraham in Donegal Township. He also referred to "my brother Christian." The will dated May 18, 1752 was not admitted to probate.

Jacob Shelly's land, situate on a branch of the Little Conestoga Creek in Hempfield Twop., Lancaster Co. containing 326 A. and Allowance. Warrant of Sept. 4, 1734, surveyed May 10, 1734, Patented Dec. 29, 1739. Survey Book C 182-165 and Pat. Book A 10-3.

The two deeds referred to were part of the administration of the estate of Jacob Shelly. By these deeds Mary Shelly and Peter Bowman, her husband, acquired 147 acres of the land acquired by the father by Patent. The remaining 180 acres were transferred to Peter Shelly.

The widow, Mary Kneisley Shelly, later became the wife of Henry Landis (Landus).

2-1

JACOB SHELLY born about 1726 died about 1775 in York County, married ANNA PEELMAN (BEIDLEMAN) (2) MARY _____
His children were:

1. Jacob
2. Mary
3. Barbara
4. Catharine

Anna Peelman was the daughter of Christian Peelman (Beidleman) late of Manor Township, Lancaster County.

Ref. Deed Book A, p. 163, July 26, 1750, Lanc. Co.
Jacob Shelly, wife Anna; Hans Hogle & wife Barbara; Christian Shelly and wife Magdalena; Elizabeth Pellman, spinster; and Eva Pellman, spinster; all being daughters of Christian Pellman (Beidleman) possessor of 200 A. and 19 A. to Jacob Segrist whose wife Mary was eldest daughter of Christian Peelman. Also Deed Book M, page 168, Jan. 30, 1767 John Hagey of Rapho Twp., and wife Elizabeth; and Jacob Mishy and wife Eve, daughters of Christian Peelman, minors at date of sale, sign a release to Jacob Segrist and wife Mary.

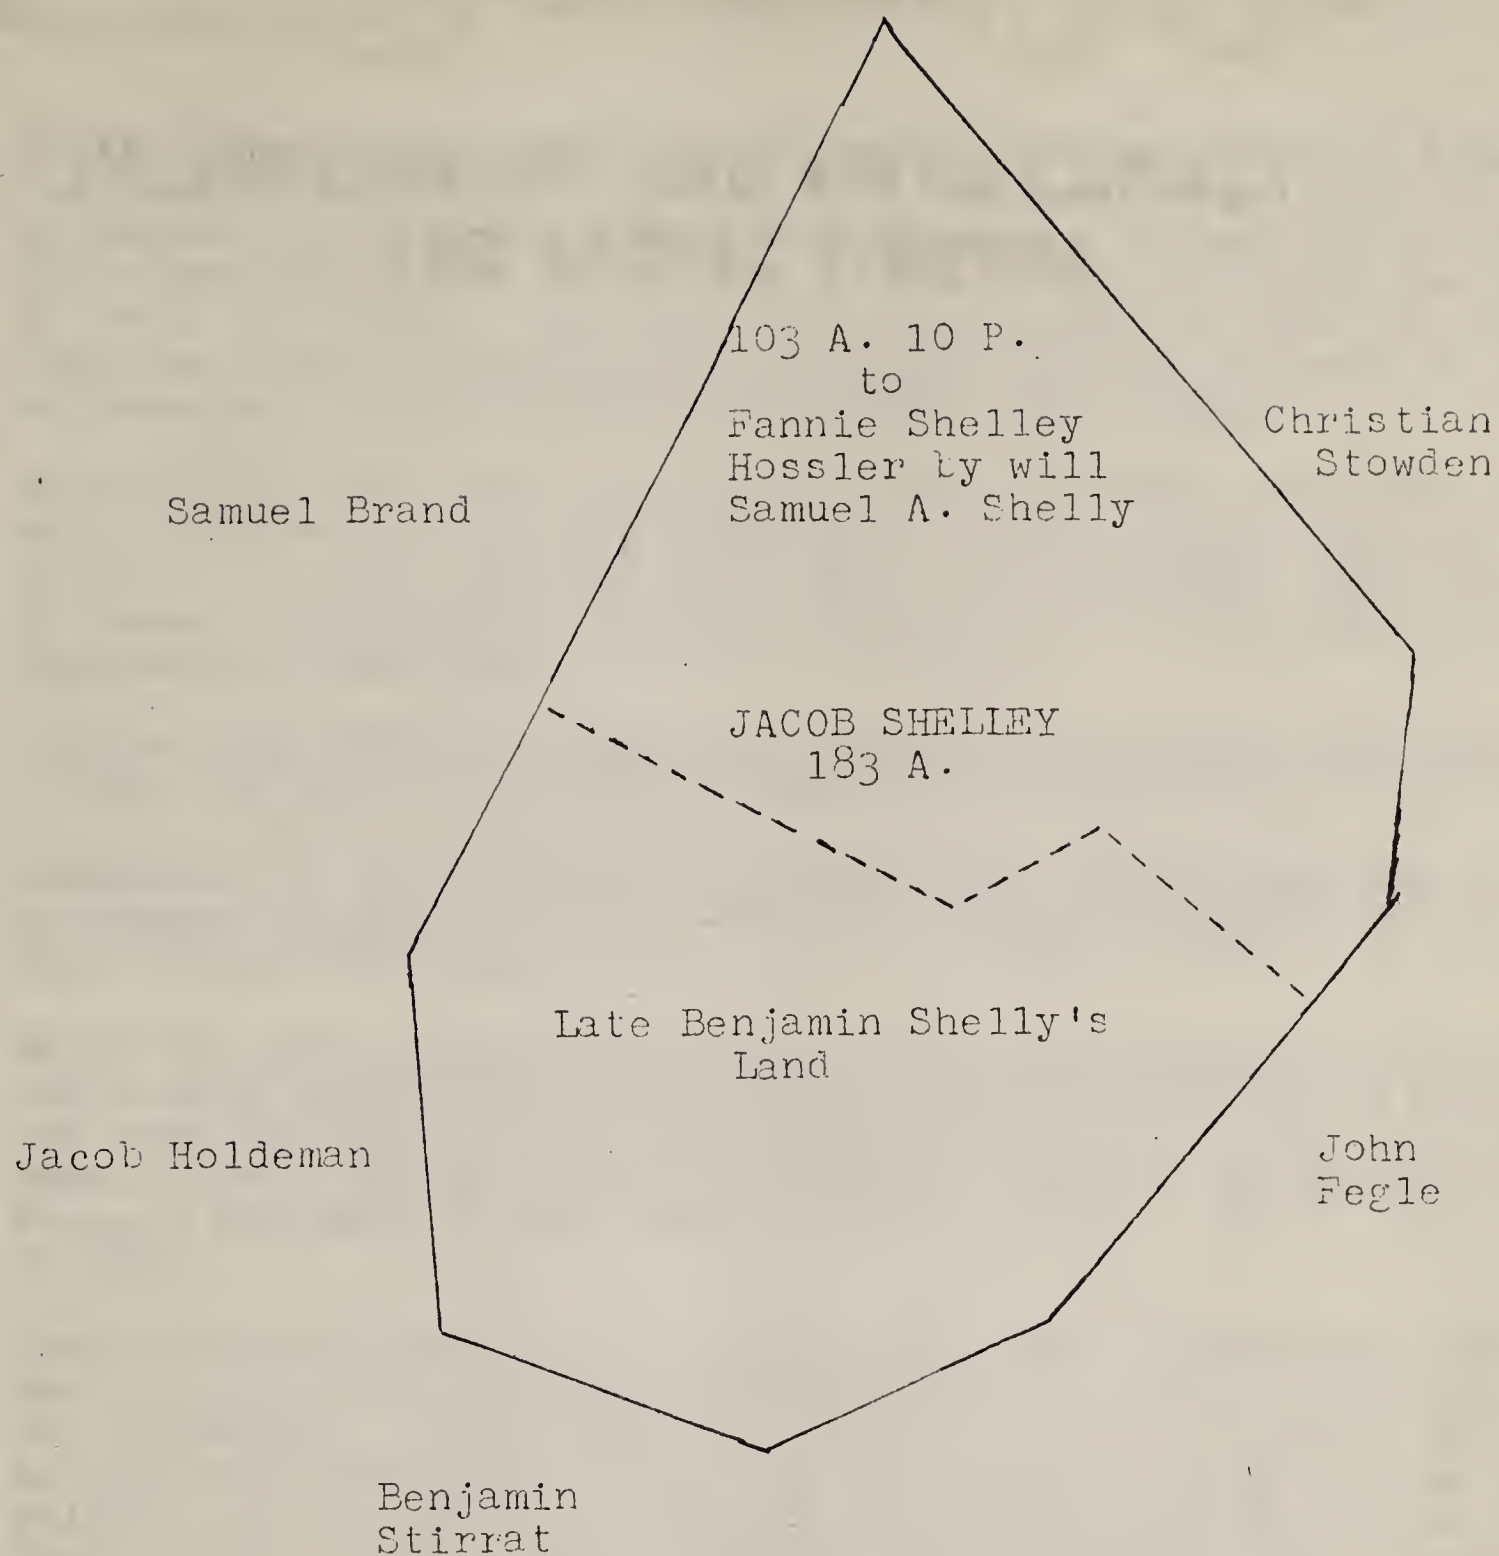

By their deed of February 1, 1759, Jacob Shelly and Anna, his wife, conveyed 183 acres of land in Rapho Township (formerly Donegal) to his brother Christian Shelly, the same being a tract of land which by Patent of the Honourable Proprietaries of Pennsylvania was granted to Jacob Shelly and recorded in Patent Book A, Vol. II, page 248.

Ref. Deed Book O, p. 399, Lanc. Co.

By deed dated 1758 Cornelius Lane of Lancaster conveyed jointly to Jacob Shelly and his Brother Daniel Shelly 44 acres in Newbury Township, York County, the land having been acquired by Lane in 1752. Cornelius Lane was the father-in-law of Daniel Shelly. By deed of April 16, 1764, Daniel Shelly and wife Elizabeth sold their interest in this land to Jacob.

By deed of Oct. 1, 1770, James Rankin of York County conveyed a portion of Tract 5586 to Jacob.

By Patent of May 17, 1770 (Book AA-11-310) Jacob Shelly acquired 25 Acres, being the extreme lower end of Keys Island (now Shelly Island). This land abutted the property of his brother Daniel.

Jacob Shelley's Land situate in Donegal Twp. (now Rapho Twp.) Lancaster Co. containing 183 A. and Allowance. Warrant Apr. 23, 1740. Surveyed April 21, 1741. Settled 3 years before date of warrant. Survey Book C 182-206. Patented to Jacob Shelley Oct. 10, 1743. Pat. Book A-11-248.

At the time of his death Jacob Shelly was the owner of sizeable real estate holdings. June 5, 1776 (Orphans Court Vol. C. p. 242-243 York County) Mary Shelly widow, Daniel Shelly and John Dreichler, Administrators of the estate petition the court to sell the lands. The fact that the Courts of York did not function for a period during the Revolutionary War may be the explanation for the delay in settling this estate.

August 31, 1785 (O.C. Vol. E, p. 310) the above Administrators sold a 150 acre tract in Newberry to Samuel Keller for 90 pounds. At this term of court Jacob Jr. and Mary, both over 17 years, chose John Treichler (Dreichler) of York Township, York Co. as guardian.

October 28, 1785 the same Administrators requested confirmation of sale of land to Cornelius Lane. (O.C. Vol. E, p. 326-327)

September 1, 1790, Barbara, who was lame, petitioned the court to appoint Daniel Shelly, uncle, of Dauphin County, her guardian. (O.C. F, p. 268, York Co.).

March 22, 1791, Jacob Shelly, Jr. of Newberry Twonship petitioned the court, stated that Jacob, his father, died fifteen years ago and that he was the owner of lands, and was survived by his widow, Mary, Jacob, the petitioner, and Mary, Barbara and Catherine. Request was made to have the lands appraised. (O.C. Vol. F, p. 282).

Sheriff Laub appraised the lands, 650 acres in Newberry Township and 30 A. on an island in the Susquehanna. Jacob, Jr. Accepted the appraisal. Jacob was all owed L 8-7-0 for expenses and was to pay the widow Mary a dower of L 12-16-17 yearly and was to retain as his share L 171-2-1 plus L 42-15-6 $\frac{1}{2}$ after widow dies. Each of the others, Mary, Barbara and Catherine were to receive L 85-13-3 plus L 2-7-9 $\frac{1}{2}$ when the widow dies. (O.C. F. 343-344, Mar. 27, 1791, York Co.).

There is nothing in the record to indicate which of Jacob's wives was the mother of the children.

CHRISTIAN SHELLY born about 1728 died in Raopfo Township, Lancaster Co. prior to March 8, 1788, married MAGDALENA PEELMAN (BEIDLEMAN) who died prior to April 13, 1796. Their children:

1. Mary m. Christian Wissler (2) Mathias Myer Nfr.
2. Jacob
3. Abraham
4. Barbara m. Peter Sneveley Nfr.
5. Ann m. Mark Martin
Ann died prior to 1791 leaving surviving children as referred to but not named in will of her mother. Nfr.
6. Magdalena m. Christian Martin Nfr.
7. Christian
8. Peter died after Dec. 30, 1786 and prior to 1790.
Unmarried. No issue.
9. Elizabeth m. Samuel Myer

Magdalena Peelman was the daughter of Chritian Peelman late of Manor Township, Lancaster County. (See Jacob Shelly 2-1)

As noted under Jacob Shelly (2-1) Christian acquired 183 acres of land in Rapho Township from his brother February 1, 1759. Christian and Magdalena subsequently transferred title to this land to Christian, Jr. Christian's signature on the deed is in German, Magdalena used a mark.

Deed acknowledged May 17, 1782, recorded March 2, 1796, Deed Book XX, p. 628, Lanc. Co. This land, presently known as the old Christian Shelly farm, remained in the family for several generations. Each transfer of ownership will be noted.

There is a family burial plot on this land. This plot will be later referred to as Shelley Graveyard.

Jacob Shelly and Daniel Shelly (2-6) were the principal owners of an island in the Susquehanna River now known as Shelley Island. By deeds of 1770 and 1774 Daniel sold Christian 45 acres of this land. This land was the land across the island immediately above that of Jacob on the lower tip of the island. Whether Christian and Magdalena lived on the island is uncertain, however it is conceivable they may have taken advantage of the comparative safety of the island during the Revolutionary period. In any event the ownership of the island satisfies the York County tradition relative to the island, "originally there were three brothers."

By a deed of November 14, 1783, Christian and Magdalena deed the 45 acres of island land to their son Peter. Peter, who survived his father, died unmarried and without issue prior to the death of his mother. Upon the death of Peter, his brothers and sisters signed over their rights in this land to their mother. Magdalena in her will referred to this land. In the settlement of her estate this land was re-acquired by Daniel Shelly.

By the terms of Christian's will dated December 30, 1786, his son Jacob and son-in-law Mark Martin were named Executors. A picture of the life and customs of the day may be drawn from the following quotations from the will.

"I recommend my Soul to Almighty God who gave it to me, and my Body to the Earth from whence it was taken to be buried in a Chritian like manner."

"Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Magdalena the one full third part of all my Estate, real and personal, and also two chests, her wearing apparel, the cloth, her spinning wheel and saddle, and her feather bed with the bedstead and the furniture to the same bed belonging in my bedroom; and also the room wherein I now live, with all what is contained therein, to wit, the stove with all what belongs to it, and the table, benches, and chairs, and everything that is fastened with nails. And also a right in the kitchen cellar, bake oven and bake house and spring house on this my plantation to live therein with liberty to pass and repass as she pleases, as long as she shall live and remain my widow. And further she shall be provided with firewood as much as she may want yearly which shall be brought to the house, and be cut short and split, so as she may choose to use it. And she shall and may have as much of the cabbage and kitchen garden as she may want or use, which shall be sufficiently supplied with manure, and be kept in good fence or inclosure as is necessary. And she may take as much of the fruit, to wit, apples and pears as she stands in need of or may want. She shall also have a right to take a horse creature which soever she will or may choose when as as often as she may have occasion to ride without hunderance. And she shall have a milch cow which soever she may choose among my cattle as and for her property which shall be fed and kept in the stables and fields with the other cattle. And I do further order and direct that all the above mentioned articles shall be faithfully and inviolably observed and performed by the possessor of my land and plantation, whether he be one of my children or a stranger."

The inventory of the goods and chattles listed the following items of interest: Six bushels of salt; a parcel of honey; twenty-six bushels of Indian Corn; sundry carpenter tools; one weaver's loom with the utensils and implements pertaining thereto; one old musket and one conch shell.

The records of the Orphans' Court of Lancaster County show that the Executors of the Estate of Christian Shelly distributed L 2641 -8 -0 among the children or their legal representatives.

Magdalena Shelly in her will dated November 6, 1792, appointed her sons Abraham and Christian and her son-in-law, Christian Martin, Executors of her last will and testament. The public record reveals 1704 pounds, 18 pence, 9 shillings were paid and distributed in accordance with the terms of the will.

Ref. Will of Christian Shelly dated Dec. 30, 1785, rec. Mar. 8, 1788, Will Book E, vol. 1, p. 469 and Misc. Book 1788 to 1791 p. 135. Will of Magdalena Shelly dated Nov. 6, 1792 Rec. Apr. 13, 1796, Will Book I 1, p. 431, Misc. Book 1797 to 1801, page 71. Deeds of Daniel Shelly (Deed Book O, p. 398 Lanc. Co. and Deed Book I, vol. 1, p. 348 Dau. Co. and Indenture dated May 16, 1797, rec. Dau. Co.) Deed Christian and Magdalena to Peter, Deed Book GG, p. 320, Lanc. Co.

In connection with Christian Shelly and his wife Magdalena two real estate transactions should be cited as they were helpful in identifying his brother Abraham.

Jacob Shelly, the father of Christian, applied for 187 Acres of land in Donegal Township. When the Patent was granted August 10, 1748, title was placed in the name of Christian Shelly. By deed recorded in Deed Book O, p. 201, Lanc. Co. Feb. 1, 1759 this land was transferred to Abraham Shelly. A fuller discussion of this land follows under Abraham Shelly (2-3).

2-3

ABRAHAM SHELLY of Mount Joy Township, Lancaster County, born about 1730 died prior to April 3, 1786, married
ANNA ELIZABETH _____, who died prior to November 27, 1786.
Their children:

1. Jacob
2. Feronica (Veronica) m. Michael Horst. One of the sons of this marriage, Peter Horst m. Chritiana Shelly (2-3-6-5)
3. Mary m. Christian Witmer
4. Magdalena m. Christian Musselman
5. Anna m. Joseph Musselman
- 4 6. Christian m Anna Engle

By virtue of a Patent dated December 1, 1748, Abraham owned 198 acres "by Chicken Creek" in Donegal Township. This land is now a part of Mount Joy Township. By their deed of November 28, 1758 Abraham and wife Anna Elizabeth sold this land to Henry Landus for 250 pounds. (Deed Book G, p. 17, Lanc. Co.). Henry Landus November 26, 1760, transferred this land to his wife Mary. (Deed Book G, p. 21). The Mary referred to was Mary Kneisley Shelly, widow of Jacob (2).

As referred to under Chritian Shelly (2-2) Abraham Shelly acquired from his brother 187 acres in Donegal (now Mount Joy Township). (Deed Book O, p. 201, Lanc. Co. Feb. 1, 1759).

By his will of August 30 1784, recorded April 3, 1786, Will Book E, vol. 1, p. 333, Lanc. Co. Abraham gave to his wife Anna 100 pounds and made other provisions for her. To eldest son 5 pounds and the plantation on which he (Jacob, the eldest son) lives. To Christian, then a minor, the plantation on which Abraham lived for 900 pounds. Son Jacob Shelly of Mount Joy Township and son-in-law Michael Horst of Rapho Township were named Executors. See also Lanc. Co. Orphan's Court Records 1787, p. 497.

Pa. Archives, Fifth Series, vol. 7 lists an Abraham Shelly as a member of Captain Thomas Robinson's Co. of militia from Mount Joy Township on the following dates:

April 20, 1778, page 197
August 24, 1778, page 205
April 19, 1779, page 210

Definite identity of the above militiaman has not been established. Another Abraham Shelly (2-2-3) was apparently living in Mount Joy Township at this time.

2-4

MICHAEL SHELLY of Londonderry Township, Dauphin Co., born about 1732, died prior to April 7, 1817, married ANNA _____. Their children:

1. Mary m. Christian Ober
2. Nancy (Anna) m. Isaac Wenger of Rapho Twp. Lanc. Co. Their children Barbara Wenger m. Abraham Gible of Rapho Twp. Anna Wenger m. Christian Streit of Mt. Joy Twp.
3. Elizabeth b. June 10, 1761, d. Sept. 1801 at Marietta. Married June 20, 1788 to Christian Hersha (Hershey) who was born Feb. 12, 1765, died October, 1824. Their children:

Christian Hershey b. Apr. 13, 1787, d. Dec. 13, 1829 at Marietta, m. Margaret Flint. Nfr.
 Mary Hershey b. May 13, 1793 at Marietta d. Oct. 14, 1879 at LaSalle, N.Y. m. Benjamin Long. Nfr.

Michael Shelly is included among the Associators of the Liberty Company of Londonderry Township (then of Lancaster Co.) on a muster roll dated May 17, 1775. See Pa. Archives, 5th Series. Vol. 7, p. 7.

Christian Ober and Christian Hershey were the administrators of Michael Shelly. Their inventory of the estate indicates it was the practice of members of the family to assist one another. Mary (Polly) Shelly was the daughter of Daniel Shelly (2-6). She married Henry Sharrer (Shearer or Share) of Paxtang. Included in the inventory was the bond of Sharrar.

Birthdays of Elizabeth Shelly, Christian Hershey, et al. furnished by Mrs. John A Randall of Trego, Md.

DANIEL SHELLY, born January 21, 1736, died June 2, 1802, buried in the family burial plot on Shelley Island, married four times. His first wife was ELIZABETH LANE, born January 2, 1736, died November 14, 1766, and buried in the family burial plot on Shelley Island. The second wife was ELIZABETH GRAFF, whose date of birth and death, as well as place of burial is unknown. It is thought she may have been buried on the island and that the tombstone may have been carried away by high waters. The third wife was CATHARINE _____, born July 25, 1750, died January 1, 1785, and buried on Shelley Island. The fourth wife was BARBARA NISSLEY (NEUSELLI) born December 1, 1744, died July 6, 1801, and buried on Shelley Island.

There are traditions having to do with Daniel Shelly. The first that while standing beside the open grave of his fourth wife he removed his hat and reverently looked to the heavens and said "Oh, Lord, must I marry again." The second was that he was the father of eighteen children. There may be some truth in this tradition. It is known his oldest surviving child was born in 1760. The third of his surviving children was not born until 1771.

Elizabeth Lane was the daughter of Cornelius and Elizabeth Lane of Manheim Township and later of Lancaster, Penna. Traditionally Cornelius Lane is supposed to have supplied the brick for Trinity Church of Lancaster and there are those who believe he may have been engaged in brick manufacture rather than having had the brick imported from England. By his will Lane left money to the Lutheran and Mennonite Church for relief of the poor.

It would seem Corneliua Lane was instrumental in having Jacob Shelly and Daniel Shelly move to York County. By his deed of 1758, previously referred to under Jacob Shelly, he sold to Jacob and Daniel a tract of land in Newberry Township.

Orphans' Court Book B, p. 294, Dauphin County lists the names of the children surviving Daniel Shelly. Two of these were children born to Elizabeth Lane.

1. Jacob who died Nov. 22, 1801 in his forty-first year as indicated by tombstone found on Shelley Island
2. Abraham

Elizabeth Lane Shelly pre-deceased her father. Daniel Shelly was appointed guardian for her surviving children who were to receive the share of their mother under the will of Cornelius Lane. August 31, 1787, Jacob Shelly and his wife Ann, and Abraham Shelly and his wife Ann, all of Derry Township, Dauphin County, both being sons of Daniel and Elizabeth Lane Shelly, the latter being one of the daughters of the late Cornelius Lane of the Borough of Lancaster, sign a deed selling part of the real estate formerly vested in Cornelius Lane. (Will Book C-1, p. 559 and Deed Book GG, p. 484, Lanc. Co.) (Also Orphans' Court Book 1776-1782, Mar. 7, 1780, Lanc. Co.)

Daniel Shelly's second wife was Elizabeth Graff, daughter of Albrecht and Barbbara Graff of Newberry Township, York County. Elizabeth Graff joined with Daniel on a deed dated August 17, 1770, whereby Daniel sold to his brother Christian a portion of Shelley Island as previously described. Albrecht Graff died intestate. By deed of May 2, 1774, recorded Vol. F. York Co. we learn he left a widow Barbara, son Christian Graff of Newberry Township, Elizabeth late wife of Daniel Shelly of Lancaster Co., and Katherine wife of Abraham Shelly of Rapho Township, Lancaster County. Abraham Shelly was the third child of Christian Shelly (2-2).

Warrant #30 covering Hill Island, an island containing 268 acres, in the Susquehanna River opposite the plantation of John Day was issued to Albrecht. Subsequently Daniel Shelly held the deeds to this land.

The children born to Elizabeth Graff were

3. Daniel b. July 5, 1771
4. Catharine b. June 22, 1772, died Dec. 7, 1849, buried at Enola, Penna. Married Joseph Rife, a tanner. Their children were Jacob and Joseph.

Left with two small children, Daniel lost little time in entering into his third marriage. On May 4, 1774 we find him joining with Catharine _____ on a deed for a portion of the island to his brother Christian. This deed has been discussed previously. The children of this marriage were:

5. John b. Mar. 14, 1775
6. Nancy born about 1777 m. Henry Etter, the son of Henry and Eve Etter.
7. Elizabeth married Jacob Bear Nfr.
8. Wnedle b. Oct. 29, 1780
9. Susannah b. 1783 d. 1824 m. Henry Rife

2-6 (continued)

The identification of Barbara Nissley was easy. When she joined with Daniel on deeds as recorded in Deed Book H, vol. 2, p. 459 and Deed Book L, vol. 2, p. 501, York Co. she signed her name Barbara Beuselli.

The children born to Daniel and Barbara were

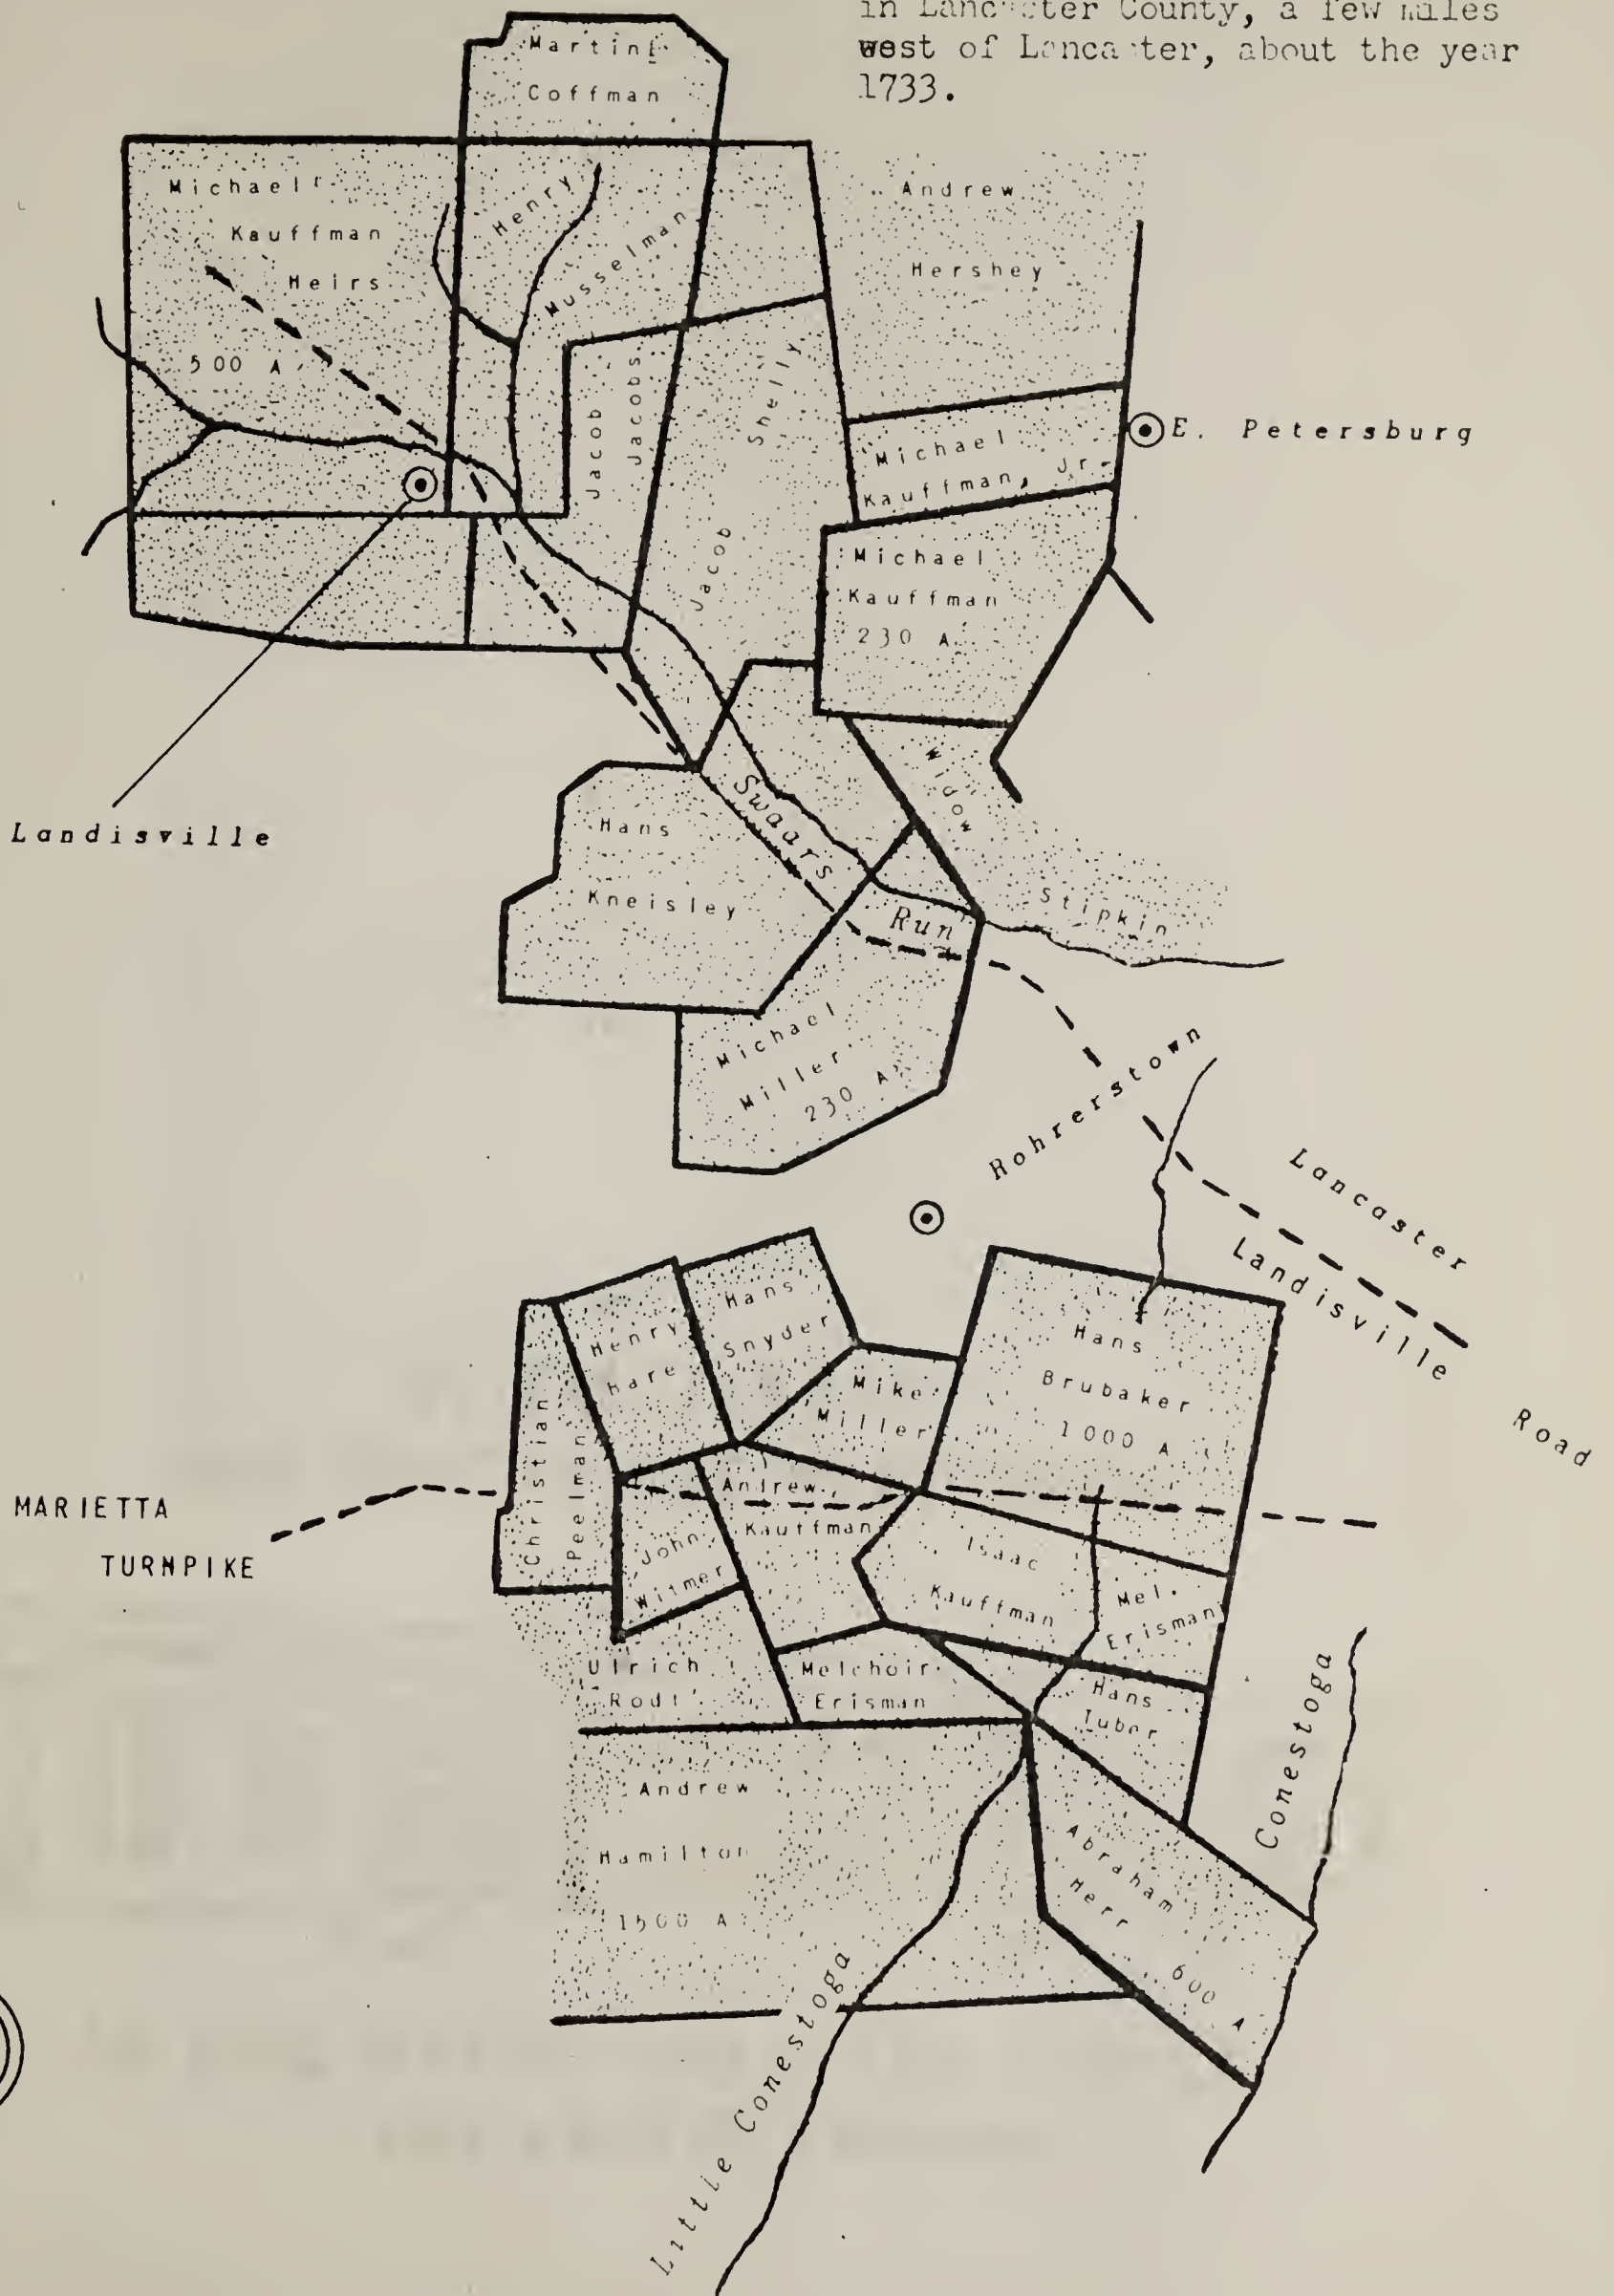

10. Mary (Polly) born about 1790 married Henry Sharrar of Paxtang
11. Rachel married Mechoir (Michael) Bretbeman. Their children were Rachel, Henry and Leah. Rachel married a second time, her husband being either William Reider of Kreider of Marietta. Tradition has it Melchoir Brenneman migrated to the wilderness of Ohio where he died. Peter Hershey was appointed guardian for the children. Another tradition is that Rachel and her children after returning to Pennsylvania later returned to Ohio and lived in Lebanon. (Brenneman Family History)

The public record shows Daniel at one time owned a number of islands in the Susquehanna River as well as considerable acreage in Newberry Township. Prior to his death most of his holdings were transferred to his sons.

In 1777 Daniel was arrested and confined in the Carlisle jail for his Tory activities. He, with other loyalists, James Rankin, Rev. Daniel Batwell, Rev. Thomas Barton, Dr. Henry Norris and others had plotted to destroy powder bases and stores at York, Lancaster and Carlisle. Rankin fled to safety. His property was confiscated. Batwell and Barton were permitted to pass to the British lines. Dr. Norris was arrested the following year and taken to Valley Forge where he was sentenced to 100 lashes. General Washington who described Norris as "madly loyal" reduced the sentence to one month's hard labor and a fine of 50 pounds "for the use of the sick in camp." (See Archives, Loyalist Transcripts and Washington Writings, Fitzgerald).

A complete discussion here of the ramifications of this event and of the people involved is not practical. Suffice it to say Daniel Shelly seems to have had a change of heart. His name appears on the roster of Capt. Robert McKee's Company, 3rd. En. Lancaster Co. Militia August 24, 1773 (Archives 5th Series. Vol. 7, p 203) and on roll of the 7th Company of the 7th Battalion for the year 1781 (Vol. 7, 732).

PETER SHELLY born about 1738 died prior to February 17, 1769 in Newberry Township, York County, married CATHARINE (CATRON) FLOW (BLOUGH). Their children:

1. Mary
2. Ann
3. Peter

After the death of his father Peter acquired 180 acres of the land formerly owned by his father in Hempfield Township in Lancaster County. After disposing of this land, he followed his brothers Jacob and Daniel to Newberry Township. In his will he refers to "my brother Daniel and his brother-in-law John Flow were named Executors. By direction of the court, the Executors were appointed guardians of the children.

The Orphan's Court record of August 28, 1771 shows that Catharine Shelly is now married to Christian Alleman. Daniel Shelly requested the appointment of a guardian, and Jacob Shelly, uncle is named Guardian for Mary who is now 11 years, Ann 8 years and Peter. Christian Alleman and wife asked that the guardian be directed to pay for the maintenance of the children. The Aleemans were granted 6 pounds for Peter and Ann, but nothing for Mary.

JACOB SHELLY born about 1759 married
MARGARET _____. Their children:

1. John born May 24, 1794, baptized April 6, 1794,
George and Margaret Fink, sponsors
2. Margaret born Sept. 28, 1795 baptized Nov. 1795,
George and Salome Miller, sponsors
3. Daniel born April 1, 1797, baptized June 4, 1797
Jacob and Elizabeth Mayer (Myers) sponsors.

Ref. Records of Quickel's Church, Conewago Twp. York Co.

Jacob Shelly, a blacksmith, resided in Newberry Township, York
Co.

By deed of June 15, 1785, acquired the lands of Samuel Love.
These lands were sold April 3, 1804 to John Jacoby of Manchester
Township. (Deed Book 2-R, p. 123).

By another deed of the same date Jacob together with his wife
Margaret sell to Jacob Jacoby another plot in Newberry Township adjoining the land of Jacob Meyers, the same being the land purchased from Jacob Barr (Bear/Bare) October 12, 1792. From this it would appear the sponsors at the baptism of Daniel were nei-bors. (Deed Book 2-R, p. 125).

In Deed Book 2-H, p. 190, under date of May 31, 1792, is recited the sale of land to Abraham Shelly of Newberry Township. Included in the transaction was the 44 A. sold by Cornelius Lane in 1758 to Daniel and Jacob Shelly, and, that part of tract
#5586 purchased by his father from James Rankin in 1770.

After these real estate transfers no further record of Jacob and Margaret Shelly was found in York County.

JACOB (JOHN) SHELLY born about 1748 died Aug. 28, 1814. Resided on a farm past in Dover, part in Paradise Township, York County, married

ANNA BARBARA DANNER born Dec. 4, 1765, died June 23, 1853, buried Strayer's Burial Ground, Dover. Anna Barbara was the daughter of Tobias and Anna Eva Danner and the granddaughter of Dietrick (Teeter) Tanner, immigrant. Tobias Danner was one of the Minute-Men who marched to Boston.

1. Michael
2. Magdalena b. Nov. 18, 1737
3. John b. Dec. 26, 1739
4. Catharine b. April 4, 1792
5. Polly b. June 8, 1794 m. Emanuel Houdeshell of Adams Co.
6. Elizabeth m. John Jacobs of York Co.
7. Sarah
8. George
9. Jonas

The above was taken from the genealogical notes of Mr. Charles Kauffman of York and from the tombstone records of the York County Historical Society concerning a John Schelli.

As the early German families frequently coupled John with Jacob, this man is being included in the Shelly list for no other than the following bits of circumstantial evidence.

Jacob Shelly and wife Barbara, of Lancaster County, probably moved to York County. In 1788, Jacob was one of the Executors of his father Christian's estate in Lancaster County. In 1796 he was not an Executor of the estate of his mother, Magdalena.

Jacob's parents, Christian and Magdalena, provided Peter, another son, with land on Shelley Island. Subsequent to the death of his father, Peter died intestate and unmarried, whereupon his brothers and sisters (including Jacob and Barbara) deeded to their mother their interest in the land on the island. After the death of Magdalena, the mother, Jacob and Barbara again join with the other children of Magdalena to deed to Daniel Shelly the island property.

ABRAHAM SHELLY of Rapho Township, Lancaster County, born July 15, 1750 died September 3, 1844, married KATHARINE GRAFF of Newberry Twonship, York County, born 1750-1751, died January 5, 1819. Both buried Shelley Graveyard. Their children were:

1. Christian born Sept. 19, 1771, married Barbara Brandt
2. Abraham born Sept. 19, 1774, married Elizabeth Brandt

Katharine Graff was the daughter of Alrecht and Barlara Graff of Newberry Township, York County. See deed of May 2, 1774, Vol. F, York County, discussed more fully under Daniel Shelly (2-6).

It would seem Abraham and Katharine Shelly resided in Mount Joy Township prior to 1783. On July 5th of that year they sold three tracts of land located in that township to Christian Shelly, Jr., a brother of Abraham, and who at the time was a resident of Rapho Township. On the same day they purchased from Christian, Jr., 183 acres of land in Rapho Township, the same being from the land Christian, Jr. had acquired from his parents, Christian and Magdalena. See Deed Book II, p. 203, and Deed Book GG, p. 460, Lanc. Co. On this land, 183 acres was set aside a family burial plot now known as Shelly Graveyard.

Under date of September 12, 1823, Abraham, then a widower, transferred the above 183 acres to his son Abraham, Jr.

By the terms of his will, Abraham Shelly gave a farm of 195 acres to his son Christian. Will Book T, vol. 1, p. 474, Lanc. Co.

An Abraham Shelly is listed on the rosters of the militia companies of Mount Joy Township commanded by Captain Thomas Robinson and Captain Abra'm Scott for the years 1778-79-81 and 82. See Penna. Archives, 5th Series, Vo. 7, p. 197, 205, 210, 214, 704, 723 and 747. The identity of this man has not been established. Another Abraham Shelly (2-3) lived in Mount Joy Township during these years.

Note: Benjamin Shelly (1776-1836) buried Shelly Graveyard. Anna Flora (Sept. 10, 1772-Jan. 27, 1843) buried Shelly Graveyard. No information concerning above found in public record. May have been son of Abraham, and if so, died without issue as no grandchildren are mentioned in will.

John Shenck; Henry Shenck
Catherine Shelly Shenck married second Michael Horst.

Liza Horst

Christian and Elizabeth Shelly, then of Rapho Twp. in a deed dated July 5, 1788 transferred to Abraham Shelly (see 2-2-3) 133a acres in Rapho Twp., being the same lands Christian acquired from his father, Christian (2-2) in 1782. On the same day Abraham Shelly and his wife Katharine, then of Mt. Joy Twp. transferred to Christian three parcels of land in Mt. Joy Twp.

A Christian Shelly is listed on the roster of Patrick Hay's Company of Lancaster County Militia for Mt. Joy Twp. as of June, 1782. See 5th Ser. Penna. Archives, Vol. 7, p. 947.

Christian in his will provided lands in Mt. Joy Township for David and John and 240 acres in Londonderry Twp. Dauphin Co. for Samuel.

Christian Nissley, preacher of Mt. Joy Twp. and Abraham Horst, farmer, of Rapho Twp. were Executors of the estate of Christian Shelly.

about 1750 died prior to October 29, 1813, married
ANNA WENGER

By his will dated April 18, 1805, probated October 29, 1813,
Jacob left, after the decease of his wife, all personal goods to the children of John Wenger. John Wenger was the eldest brother of Anna Wenger. Jacob's farm went to his brother Christian upon the payment of a stipulated sum to Anna Musselman, who was his youngest sister. Executors: David Horst and Christian Shelly.

CHRISTIAN SHELLY of Mt. Joy Township, Lanc. Co. born Sept. 7, 1762, died April 3, 1829, buried Horst Graveyard, Rapho Twp. Married first (April 4, 1789, First Reformed Church, Lancaster)

ANNA ENGLE of Donegal Township, Lanc. Co. born Aug. 6, 1765, died 1795. Christian Shelly married second

ELIZABETH _____, born April 4, 1766, died March 25, 1850. Buried Horst Graveyard.

Anna Engle was the daughter of Ulrich Engle (born July 1, 1743, died September 28, 1799) and Magdalena Bickslerr (born 1741, died September 13, 1821). Her grandfather was Ulrick (Yokeli) Engle, founder of the River Brethren.

The children of Christian Shelly's first marriage were:

1. Jacob
2. Magdalena (Martha) born June 5, 1790, died July 28, 1878, buried Horst Graveyard.
3. Elizabeth m. _____ Sheffer (Sheaffer)
4. Mary born May 2, 1794, died unmarried Sept. 6, 1876, buried Horst Graveyard.
5. Christiana born July 26, 1795, died January 23, 1870, married Peter Horst, born April 15, 1787, died August 25, 1876, both buried Horst Graveyard.

The children of Christian Shelly's second marriage were:

6. Abraham married Ann N. Neff
7. Christian
8. Ann m. Jacob Sangree (dec. in 1872) of Wershtenow (Washtenaw) County, Michigan.
9. Fanny m. _____ Landis

Island.

Orphans' Court, Dauphin Co., 1803 --- Peter Kyers was guardian of Isaac; Daniel Funk guardian of Daniel and Elizabeth; Jacob Neisley guardian of Polly and Anna. Abraham Shelley, brother, Anna Shelley, widow, and Joseph Rife, Administrators of the estate.

Mrs. D. J. Shelley of Carlisle, Pa. is in possession of the Family Bible as well as a draft of the lands owned by Jacob Shelley. At one time he owned 122 A. in York County along the Susquehanna River immediately adjoining lands of Henry Etter. He also owned a portion of Shelley Island, having received title thereto from his father, Daniel.

This being a Dauphin County estate it is thought Jacob resided on Shelley Island and that he is the Jacob Shelley who is listed on the roster of Capt. Robert McKee's 7th Company of the 7th Battalion of Lancaster County Militia in the years 1781-1782. See Archives, 5th Series, Vol. VII, pages 732 and 753.

ABRAHAM SHELLY b. about 1762, d. prior to Feb. 18, 1812, married first

ANNA _____ (See Citation under Daniel Shelly, father, in re estate of Cornelius Lane)

Abraham Shelly later married
MARY SHUMAN, daughter of John Shuman of Newberry Twp. York Co.

1. Catharine b. about 1790 m. Martin Crull (Croll)
2. Elizabeth b. about 1791 m. William Reeser
3. Ann born about 1792 m. George Etter
4. Mary (Polly) b. about 1795 m. Harry Smith

It is believed the children were of the first marriage.

March 30, 1811, Abraham Shelly of Newberry Township, entered into a pre-marital agreement with Jacob and John Detwiler of Dauphin Co., Executors of the estate of David Detwiler, late of Dauphin Co., and Rebecca Detwiler, widow of David.

Abraham Shelly of Newberry Township, died intestate. Orphans' Court records state he left widow Margaret and daughters as listed above. At the time Catharine and Elizabeth were married; Ann who was twenty had as her guardian Peter Matthias, and Mary who was seventeen had as her guardian John Shelly. John was the half-brother of Abraham (see 2-6-5) and was the husband of Lydia Shuman.

Will of John Shuman dated October 14, 1813 mentions Mary Shelly; Sarah Matthews; Susan Ayres; Elizabeth Shelly; Lydia Shelly; Eve Wolf; Anna Herman; and the children of John Shuman, a son, deceased _____ i.e. Catharine, Barbara, Eve and John.

Tombstone of Elizabeth Shuman Shelly, wife of Daniel (2-6-5), states she is the daughter of John Shuman. Lydia Shuman Shelly was the wife of John; Mary was the wife of Abraham as noted above.

Abraham Shelly pre-deceased John Shuman. Daniel and Jacob Shelly were the executors of the Shuman estate.

Orphans' Court records for York county, Dec. 1803, state David Detwiler of Dauphin County was named guardian of Catharine, Barbara and Eve, the daughters of John Shuman, Jr. Note David Detwiler was dead in 1811. John Shelly was named guardian of John Shuman III.

At the time of his death Abraham Shelly owned an island in the Susquehanna River containing 42 acres, as well as several tracts of land totaling 1,200 acres along the river in York County below Goldsboro. From the records of his estate it can be assumed he was a farmer and also engaged in lumbering.

The militia company from Newberry Township, a part of Colonel Smyser's battalion, included the name of Abraham Shelly as of July 1, 1780. Captain Hennery Matthias was the company commander. Abraham's name appears on rosters of later dates.

Ref. Deed Books U, vol. 1, p. 152 and W, vol. 1, p. 543, Dauphin Co. Orphans Court, York Co. Vol. L, pages 239, 240, 243, 255, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261. York Co. Deed Book 2-W, page 66, Will Book M, page 467, and Orphans Court I, page 482.

The records of immigrant arrivals include a John Schuman who arrived at Philadelphia, Saturday, October 27, 1764 on the Ship Hero, Ralph Forster, Captian, late of Rotterdam and Cowes. No attempt has been made to indentify this arrival.

John Shuman was the owner of a two-story log cabin erected on lot #3 of the original plan of the town of Newberrry. This was later sold to William Wickersham.

January 17, 1778 a warrant was issued for the arrest of Colonel William Rankin of the York County Militia. Rankin was charged with rescuing John Shuman and others from Captain William Ashton and Joseph Welsh who stated Shuman's arrest had been legally in connection with their duties as militia officers. The following sentence concerning Rankin quoted from the warrant addressed to the Keeper of the Jail at York is significant of the times. "This is therefore to command you to take into your custody and then to safely keep the fiend." (From document found at the York Historical Society.)

No record was found concerning the arrest of Shuman but it is thought it may have been for failure to muster.

Data concerning Daniel and Elizabeth Shelly taken from tombstones found on Shelley Island. Information concerning children taken from the Family Bible of Daniel Shelly owned by Shelley Miller, 235 Maclay St., Harrisburg (1933). Orphans Court records for Dauphin County substantiate records in the Family Bible.

Daniel Shelly probably was born on Shelley Island.

See Abraham Shelly (2-6-2) for information concerning John Shuman.

CATHARINE SHELLEY born June 22, 1733, d. Dec. 7, 1849, buried at Enola, Penna. married JOSEPH RIFE, a tanner, the son of Joseph and Barbbara (?) Rife.

Sons Jacob and Joseph settled in eastern Cumberland County.

The name Joseph Rife appears on the muster roll of Captain Robert McKee's 7th Company, 7th Battalion, Lanc. Co. Militia for the year 1782. A Jacob Rife and a Jacob Rife Jr. are also listed. See Pa. Archives, 5th Series, Vol. VII, p. 767-768.

Ref. Will Book E, p. 17, Dauphin Co. Signature on will was John Shelle. Tombstone inscribed in German bore name Johannes Shelle.

2-6-6

NANCY SHELLEY b. about 1777 married HENRY ETTER, son of Henry and Eve Etter.

Two tombstones carved on rough stone found on Shelley Island bear the following inscriptions:

Any Etter	Di	1801
Polly Etter	Di	1804

It is thought these were the children of Nancy Shelley Etter.

Prior to 1800 the road from Goldsboro to Harrisburg was along the river. Etter's Tavern on this highway above Goldsboro was at this point where the ferry from Middletown landed. For many years a post office was located there. When the postoffice was moved to Goldsboro the office retained the name of Etters.

The name Henry Etter (spelled Eatter) appears on Captain Thomas Robinson's muster roll of April 20, 1778, for the militia company from Mt. Joy Twop., Lancaster Co. See Archives, 5th Ser. Vol. VII, p. 197.

The land of Jacob Shelly (2-6-1) adjoined the lands of Henry Etter.

ABRAHAM CHILLEY

Probably more yarns have been told about Abraham Shelley than about any other member of the family. Twice married, the father of twenty-four children (twelve to each wife) it is easy to understand how so many tales have been passed along.

The earlier of the two pictures of Abraham was given to me by Delanson Nauss, a grandson. I know of no other copy of it. This photograph came into my possession after the death of my father and I am unable to say whether it is authentic. The picture of Abraham in the rocking chair is owned by many members of the family.

A Budding Romance.

My mother says this photograph was made the day she met my father.

This is the story: The Sunday Schools of New Cumberland were holding a union picnic at Williams Grove Park.....The New Cumberland Band furnished music for the occasion. As I understand the story Dad had just come to town to operate a restaurant. He was related to the girls in the background. They also lived in New Cumberland. _____ Garretson was a relative of Dad's Grandmother Prowell; Carrie Prowell was his aunt (his mother's sister). After mother was introduced to father all went to the park photographer to have this picture made (they must have been psychic) to pass on to posterity.

MOSES SHELLY b. Oct. 20, 1835 on Shelley Island married first MATILDA HANELON, then

MRS. MARY HUSTON

After the death of his father and remarriage of his mother, Moses Shelly resided in Mt. Joy, Lancaster County until 1856.

In 1861 he was 2nd Lieutenant of the Washington Guards of York County. The following is from Vol. 1, Prowell's York County History.

"The Washington Guards was a militia company, composed of 60 men from Newberry Township, and was organized in 1858 and commanded by Captain John Crull. In 1861 when the Civil War opened, Captain Crull volunteered to enter the army and in August of that year went to York with forty men. The 87th Regiment, Penna. Volunteers was then being organized at York. Captain Crull and his men were mustered in as part of Company B of this regiment, and served during three years of the Civil War.

When the Washington Guards organized in 1858, they purchased a fine flag at a cost of $42.00. This banner was presented to the Historical Society of York County by Martin S. Crull, a son of Captain Crull, in the year 1905. Mr. Crull also presented a tenor drum used by his company."

In 1869 Moses Shelly was the proprietor of the White Hall Hotel at 217 Market St., Harrisburg. In 1882 he operated the Central Hotel of Harrisburg. Subsequently he operated a tavern at Goldsboro.

For further information concerning the Crulls see 2-6-2; 2-6-2-1; 2-6-8-3; 2-6-3-11 and 2-6-3-13.
